(4) In any criminal proceedings under this Act or regulations made thereunder, any officer of the Authority may, notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, produce the evidence, plead and otherwise conduct the prosecution jointly with the Police.

(5) Should the evidence of the officer designated by the Authority as aforesaid be required as part of the case for the prosecution, he shall be heard before assuming the duties of a prosecuting officer unless the necessity of his giving evidence arises at a later stage:

Provided that said officer may state the facts constituting the offence before giving evidence.

Cap. 9. (6) The punishments provided in this Act shall apply unless the fact constitutes a more serious offence under the Criminal Code or any other law, in which case the provisions of the Criminal Code or of such other law shall apply.

Cap. 9. (7) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Criminal Code, criminal proceedings for an offence against this Act or any other regulatory instrument shall be barred by prescription by the lapse of six years.

comply and, or a sum not exceeding five thousand euro (€5,000) for each day of infringement or non-compliance, and, or any other administrative sanctions as an alternative to criminal court proceedings. Upon conclusion of such agreement, the offender's criminal liability under this Act with regard to the offence or offences in relation to which the agreement has been entered, shall be extinguished:

Provided that the agreement shall not be concluded and the criminal liability of the offender shall not be extinguished unless the agreement is accompanied by the payment of the sum due or the provision of sufficient security for its payment, in the case of a fine, or in the case of another form of sanction by adherence thereto or sufficient security of adherence:

Provided further for the sake of clarity that the agreement, and payment of any fine due in virtue thereof, shall not exonerate the person in breach from rectifying such breach and becoming duly compliant with this Act and other applicable regulatory instruments:

Provided further that any forfeiture contemplated in this Act or the relevant regulatory instrument as a consequence of the offence to which the agreement relates shall, notwithstanding such agreement, still take effect.

(2) The provisions of sub-article (1) shall apply also in any case where the offender has been charged before a court in relation to the offence, but before final judgement has been given in the case.

(3) In the case of a breach of any regulatory instrument which is not mentioned in the Third Schedule, the Authority may impose an administrative penalty not exceeding twenty-five thousand euro (€25,000) for every breach or non-compliance and, or an administrative penalty not exceeding five hundred euro (€500) for each day on which the breach persists.

(4) The Authority may, by means of a public statement, disclose the name of the person sanctioned, the particular breach of a regulatory instrument committed, and the penalty or administrative measure imposed, where it deems that lack of disclosure would be detrimental to the interests of players or cause disproportionate damage to the parties involved.

(5) Any imposition of a fine or administrative sanction shall be without prejudice to the right of the Authority to recover any and all fees, contributions, levies, taxes and other dues which are imposed by or under this Act that remain unpaid after their due date. Such fees and taxes shall be due to the Authority as a civil debt and shall upon the service by judicial act of a copy of a notice for payment on the person indicated in the notice, constitute an executive title for all effects and purposes of Title VII of Part I of Book Second of the Code of Organization and Civil Procedure.

(3) In the case of a prosecution under the provisions of this Act or any other regulatory instrument, any person who in any way whatsoever has taken part in or has been a partner of any person in any bet or wager, and whose evidence is required in support of such charge as aforesaid, shall be compellable to answer any question respecting that charge, notwithstanding that the answer thereto will expose him to criminal prosecution; but in any such event, any person who shall have given evidence in respect of such charge, and who shall have made a true and faithful statement touching such charge, to the best of his knowledge, shall thereupon obtain from the court a certificate to that effect, and he shall, in consequence, be exempted from all criminal responsibility in respect of his participation in the bet or wager forming the subject-matter of the charge upon which he gave evidence as witness.

Provided that new evidence may be brought on appeal if the party producing the evidence proves that it had no knowledge of such evidence before the appeal or could not, with the means provided by law, have produced such evidence;

(b) the Tribunal shall summarily reject any appeal that is deemed by the Tribunal to be frivolous and, or vexatious. In any such case all costs shall be borne by the appellant, and the Tribunal may also impose on the appellant a nominal fine not exceeding one thousand euro (€1,000), which shall be recoverable by the Authority as a civil debt owed and due to the Authority on which there is an executive title.
